Round 9 - Pit Notes Presented by Porsche: Page 17

The new tub on the No. 7 Audi is actually this year's Le Mans winner that was driven by Timo Bernhard, Romain Dumas and Mike Rockenfeller. They, of course, are driving the Porsche Hybrid this weekend. Audi engineers have matched the setup on the No. 7 car with the No. 9 car.

As was the case at Mosport, LMP and GT cars will be on different pit sequences for this race. After pits are opened, LMP cars may pit on the first lap after the pits are open. GT cars may come in on the second lap, and any car may pit on subsequent laps. The sequence is not applicable in the final 30 minutes of the race.
